CRIMINALS AND PACIFICISM

It is a matter of some difficulty to decide which is the more refreshing, the pronouncement of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church in national convention at Concordia college on pacificism, or that of the same body on the treatment of criminals.

Dr. William A. Maier, of St. Louis, spokesman for the synod, expressed the Lutheran position in these matters which is most decidedly a departure from the present-day trend in many of the church organizations of the land. As spokesman for the organization, Dr. Maier made plain that it was wholly against pacificism and out of all sympathy with the coddling of criminals and the ascribing of criminal acts and tendencies to new-fangled diseases.

"The church opposes organized efforts to abolish the death penalty, because these efforts are opposed to the teachings of the Bible both in the Old and New Testaments," Dr. Maier declared. "It is apparent that moves toward the softening of law have been conducive to increased lawlessness. The Lutheran church has no sympathy for the fashionable and popular mode of coddling criminals."

Having presented his church's position on the treatment of criminals, Dr. Maier made its position on pacificism equally plain, stating that there is no tendency toward a "milk-fed pacificism" among Lutherans, citing scripture in defense of the church's position. He held the "No More War" clamor, together with the scrapping of national defenses, to be procedure inconsistent with Biblical admonition and national prudence. "Why cry 'peace' when there is no peace?" is the question he said the Lutheran church asked.

"The Lutheran church deplors war and the unspeakable sorrow which comes in its wake," the doctor continued. "The very thought of brutal carnage must be repulsive to every Christian who knows and feels Christ's admonition that we love one another. But any civil government is obliged to protect the lives and property of its citizens, and for this reason the Lutheran church takes the position that war is abhorrent as it is, may be justifiable and necessary."

There may be, and doubtless are many in and out of church organizations who will not agree with the Lutheran position on either the treatment of criminals or on the subject of possible justification of war. As a matter of fact many church organizations are simply impregnated by pacificism and are propagandizing to spread pacifist ideas and practices. But even these must admire the courage of this Lutheran body in standing out against the present-day very general trend of the clergy and frankly setting out its opposition thereto. There is a world of difference between abhorring war and inviting it by lack of national preparedness. All of us abhor war, but, blessed thought, all of us are not willing to invite it by making ourselves helpless before the world.

What Others Say

THE NEW MONEY

The issuance of the new small-size paper currency has been fixed for July 15. Already it has been placed on exhibition in many banks and business houses. This decrease in the size of currency bills represents a mighty saving to the government in the matter of paper. The wonder is that this practical reform was not long ago proposed and adopted.

The new currency will be put out by the Federal Reserve system in the regular process of replacing worn-out paper. For a time we shall have currency of two sizes, but ultimately the two-thirds size of the new issue will be all that we shall know.

It is pretty—this new issue. It suggests a gracefulness of artistic design altogether lacking in the older forms of denominations. Each denomination of the new currency will have its own distinctive design, varied only sufficiently to distinguish the five separate bills—United States notes, silver certificates, Federal Reserve notes and national bank notes.

But new or old, Uncle Sam's money is the best in the world—as good as gold. It is not the size of the denominations which gave to them their value, but the pledge and guaranty of the mighty government that is behind them. You will be just as rich on July 15, the date of public issuance of these small certificates, as if you owned a quantity of their older, and larger brothers now destined to retirement and extinction.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Stars Say—

For Thursday, July 4

According to the stellar ruler-ship for this day there will be much travel and moving about, these attended by the most auspicious holiday conditions for pleasure and profit, where that is desired. Those who are disposed to attend to business or employment will find many channels of advancement and progress, with promotion and preferment, or favors from those in places of authority. It is a day to be taken advantage of by the ambitious. There is a hint as to discretion in personal contacts or social relations.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of advancement, preferment and the favor of those in high places. There is forecast of progress and prosperity in business and employment, but there is some sign of indelicacy or inharmonious in the personal relations.

A child born on this day may have many talents and qualifications for attaining places of position and power, with its ambitions reached by their own efforts, as well as through friends of importance.

Come with us to the field, or go with our brothers to the sea and cast your nets; for the land and sea shall be bountiful to you, even as to us.—Gibran.

For Friday, July 5

While this day may be memorable for several advantages and opportunities, with encouragement for new contracts, fresh undertakings and worth-while adventures into bold enterprises, yet there is a figure read as interposing a stubborn obstacle, with possible postponement or some disappointment. Under the circumstances it is advised that all effort be made with that prospect, but the delays and obstructions are not to be taken as final. Constructive work should be pushed to the highest bent, despite difficulties.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of splendid advantage and unusual openings, with much initiative toward new projects or renewals of old contracts. Though the prospects for ultimate fulfillment of the ambitions may be delayed, but "all is not lost that is deferred," according to the proverb.

A child born on this day may be versatile, enterprising and should be equipped to attain success in its ventures, despite many stubborn obstacles in life.

Old Care has a mortgage on every estate, and that's what you pay for the wealth that you get.

—J. G. Saxe.

Fire Destroys Still

Dayton, O., July 3.—Dayton's independence day liquor supply was somewhat depleted today, following an explosion in the wee-small hours of early morning, which set a house on fire and incidentally disclosed a 200-gallon still and 400 gallons of the finished product.

DR. COPELAND URGES PREVENTIVE MEASURE

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

Just a week or so ago I told you about diphtheria. But I am so pleased that the able Commissioner of Health of New York City is continuing his campaign against diphtheria I want to tell you more about it. Dr. Wynne is insisting that all children be inoculated against this terrible disease.

DR. COPELAND

When I was a young doctor we knew nothing about the prevention of diphtheria. It was extremely prevalent, and very, very fatal. Little children, who had passed through the dangers of infancy and had not yet gained the strength and sturdiness of school age were the ones who died.

Not only was it a fatal disease in these days, but the deaths were dreadful to witness. The poor children actually choked to death.

I can well recall the leathery, grayish membrane as it filled the throat and as it grew, ultimately shut off the breathing. As the poison of the disease were absorbed the health and figure of the child melted away, giving every evidence of the violence of the disease.

It makes me shiver to think of what happened to childhood from the effects of this one ailment. It was the chief cause of death among children.

Unfortunately for mankind, we have plenty of diseases today that cannot be controlled. We face those for which there is no known cause. There are others so obscure that we have been unable to find effective remedies.

Diphtheria is not in this catalogue. It has been lifted from the unknown to one of the best understood of human ailments. There is no excuse today for any considerable number of deaths from this disease.

Sometimes lay persons sneer a little at the scientists. But no one can sneer at what they have done to guard young children against disaster. If there were no other reason for applauding their efforts, the discovery of a means of protection against diphtheria would be quite sufficient. If their methods are followed universally, diphtheria will disappear as a cause of death.

Any community can free itself of this danger. Every physician has in his possession a sure means of preventing diphtheria.

Everybody dreads an operation. I don't suppose anybody ever faced a surgical knife without secret fear and perhaps visible trembling. Even so simple a thing as having a tooth extracted is a matter of concern. But as compared with these the inoculation against diphtheria is as nothing. It is neither painful nor dangerous.

I beg that every parent who has confidence in my advice may consult the family physician regarding this procedure. Your little ones are too dear to you to take any chance of a disease so dreadful as diphtheria. The trifling inconvenience of having the inoculation is of small consequence when weighed against the comforting thought that the Death Angel will pass by your house when seeking the victims of this disease.

Hotter than Vulcan's fabled furnace are these modern Infernos of the great Sohio plants. Throw a handful of change into these furnaces and the coals melt almost instantly. Even the vivid imagination of the ancients failed to picture such withering heat as modern science now produces.

MODERN VULCANS CONSTANTLY TEND THIS ROARING INFERNO..

In the Inferno of Sohio's great furnaces a constant temperature of 1800 degrees is maintained—day in and day out. Monster oil burning blow-torches feed the fuel. Delicate meters continuously register

Only the comparative coolness of the oil itself keeps these pipes from melting. Here the oil reaches a temperature of 1000 degrees and a pressure of 1000 pounds to the square inch.

MAY PLACE BAN ON AIR STUNTS

Numerous Deaths Over New York Area Is Reason Given

Longfield Field, N. Y., July 3.—The closing series of air disasters occurring near this field in the last few days may result in the adoption of a rigid ban on "stunt flying" over Long Island and in the metropolitan district, it developed tonight.

The cycle of fatal accidents which reached its climax yesterday in the death of Wilmer Stultz, trans-Atlantic aviator, and two flying companions, has aroused the ire of airport authorities. Department of commerce officials and other aviation men.

As crashes have claimed nine deaths, Stultz, who plunged to earth in his Waco speed-wing biplane after going into a tail-spin to a height of 500 feet just outside the boundaries of this flying field, is generally deplored here today. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that the aviator could have averted the fatal crash if he had adhered to the letter of the law governing flying activities in this vicinity.

Investigators for the department of commerce inspecting the wreckage of the plane found evidence to indicate that Stultz's passengers, Edward Harwood and Pasquale Castelluccio, had unwittingly "frozen" the dual controls of the little plane, thereby making it impossible for the pilot to righ the ship when it went into its spin.

that any must a city be progressive, and this one big question must always remain in the minds of every Salem resident: "If an industry wishes to locate in Salem in the near future, and we cannot offer it soft water, will it select our city as a site for its location?"

Krauss Joins Debate
Samuel Krauss, a member of the committee declared that manufacturers of the city favored it in that it would bring soft water for use in their various industries.

Rollins again took the stand, saying that the city's growth is too slow to use a possible increase in population as chief argument in favor of the project. He also took the stand that he was "sure it will be voted down."

Filer immediately became eloquent on Rollins' statements, taking the floor with the declaration that "one of our members has undergone a sudden change of heart," explaining that in a meeting of the body as committee-of-the-whole, all were in favor of putting it on the ballot.

"I do not say I am in favor of the Butler project. None of us do," he emphatically declared, "but I do repeat that it is not up to a body of seven persons to decide the matter, and I say definitely that the people should have the final word."

P. J. Dean, president of the body, went up to this time had taken no part whatever in the debate, called a halt in the discussion, and voiced his opinion.

"In all municipal affairs the public has the final vote. What you and I think must be discounted, and in this case, we cannot, with justice to the taxpayers, drop the water project without allowing them to get in a vote, either for or against it."

Following the president's statement, the motion was seconded, and passed by unanimous vote. The resolution will be presented for action at the next session.

Council was charged by City Engineer F. S. Barekloff not to give the resolution its three readings, after its preparation was completed, until it was definitely ascertained that the city will be able to re-open the lands at the Butler project, without any increase in cost.

"The price of the options now is reasonable, but any increase whatever will be unreasonable," the engineer told the council. "I wish council would make it a point, before they take their final action in placing it before the people, to make sure there will be no increase."

Options on the land, it was explained, will expire September 1.

CUTTER AGROUND ON WEST COAST

Perilous, Fog-Bound Seas Endanger Captain And Crew of 25 Men

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 3.—In perilous fog-bound seas the coast guard cutter Algonquin today stood by the steam schooner Anne Hanity, fast aground a mile from Point Honda, awaiting calmer waters to effect rescue of the captain and crew of 25.

Although part of her deck cargo of lumber was jettisoned, efforts to refloat the vessel proved unavailing. The Anne Hanity, a wooden craft of 756 net tons, is grounded in a heavy fog which sent two other ships careening together. These, the Standard Oil tanker District of Columbia and the Dimon Line freighter Pacific Oak, limped into port with gaping holes in their sides.

It was at Port Honda that seven naval destroyers piled up several years ago with the loss of 15 lives.

FRANCE BALKED IN DEBT PLAN

U. S. Takes Definite Stand In Refusing to Accept All Reservations

Washington, July 3.—The American government will accept no reservations to France's ratification of the Mellon-Berenger debt agreement—at least, no reservations that make French payments to the United States contingent upon Germany's reparations payments to France.

Administration officials were quite positive on this point today while expressing gratification at the belated steps which the Poincare government is taking to obtain parliamentary approval of the three-year-old pact.

The expectation now is that France will ratify the agreement considerably in advance of August 1 and thus escape having to pay $400,000,000 in cash on that date for the purchase of surplus A. E. F. stocks. The war stocks debt, under the general debt accord, is margined into the greater war debt of some $4,000,000,000 payable over 62 years at very low interest.

There is considerable curiosity here, however, and some concern over the threat in Paris to ratify "with reservations." Of course a be attached to the ratification so long as they were not attached directly to the pact itself. But any attempt to insert a proviso in the agreement to the effect that France will pay the United States as long as Germany continues to pay France will be promptly and firmly rejected by Washington. On that point state department policy and senate policy are one.

Chicago, July 3.—Deadly taxicab warfare flared again in Chicago today and Ernest Hoffman, Checker taxicab driver, was shot through the head as he sat at the wheel of his speeding machine and was instantly killed.

The driverless car careened into another machine and finally came to a stop against a tree. The killers fled and have not been arrested. No motive for the attack is known to police other than possible business rivalry.

CRIMINALS AND PACIFICISM

It is a matter of some difficulty to decide which is the more refreshing; the pronouncement of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church in national convention at Concordia college on pacificism, or that of the same body on the treatment of criminals.

Dr. William A. Maier, of St. Louis, spokesman for the synod, expressed the Lutheran position in these matters which is most decidedly a departure from the present-day trend in many of the church organizations of the land. As spokesman for the organization, Dr. Maier made plain that it was wholly against pacificism and out of all sympathy with the coddling of criminals and the ascribing of criminal acts and tendencies to new-fangled diseases.

"The church opposes organized efforts to abolish the death penalty, because these efforts are opposed to the teachings of the Bible both in the Old and New Testaments," Dr. Maier declared. "It is apparent that moves toward the softening of law have been conducive to increased lawlessness. The Lutheran church has no sympathy for the fashionable and popular mode of coddling criminals."

Having presented his church's position on the treatment of criminals, Dr. Maier made its position on pacificism equally plain, stating that there is no tendency toward a "milk-fed pacificism" among Lutherans, citing scripture in defense of the church's position. He held the "No More War" clamor, together with the scrapping of national defenses, to be procedure inconsistent with Biblical admonition and national prudence. "Why cry 'peace' when there is no peace?" is the question he said the Lutheran church asked.

"The Lutheran church deprecates war and the unspeakable sorrow which comes in its wake," the doctor continued. "The very thought of brutal carnage must be repulsive to every Christian who knows and feels Christ's admonition that we love one another. But any civil government is obliged to protect the lives and property of its citizens, and for this reason the Lutheran church takes the position that war, abhorrent as it is, may be justifiable and necessary."

There may be, and doubtless are, many in and out of church organizations who will not agree with the Lutheran position on either the treatment of criminals or on the subject of possible justification of war. As a matter of fact many church organizations are simply impregnated by pacificism and are propagandizing to spread pacifist ideas and practices. But even these must admire the courage of this Lutheran body in standing out against the present-day very general trend of the clergy and frankly setting out its opposition thereto. There is a world of difference between abhorring war and inviting it by lack of national preparedness. All of us abhor war, but, blessed thought, all of us are not willing to invite it by making ourselves helpless before the world.

What Others Say

THE NEW MONEY

The issuance of the new small-size paper currency has been fixed for July 15. Already it has been placed on exhibition in many banks and business houses. This decrease in the size of currency bills represents a mighty saving to the government in the matter of paper. The wonder is that this practical reform was not long ago proposed and adopted.

The new currency will be put out by the Federal Reserve system in the regular process of replacing worn-out paper. For a time we shall have currency of two sizes. But ultimately the two-thirds size of the new issue will be all that we shall know.

It is pretty—this new issue. It suggests a gracefulness of artistic design altogether lacking in the older forms of denominations. Each denomination of the new currency will have its own distinctive design, varied only sufficiently to distinguish the five separate bills—United States notes, silver certificates, Federal Reserve notes and national bank notes.

But new or old, Uncle Sam's money is the best in the world—as good as gold. It is not the size of the denominations which gave to them their value, but the pledge and guaranty of the mighty government that is behind them. You will be just as rich on July 15, the date of public issuance, if you possess a volume of these small certificates, as if you owned a quantity of their elder, and larger brothers, now destined to retirement and extinction—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Stars Say—

For Thursday, July 4

According to the stellar relationship for this day there will be much travel and moving about, these attended by the most auspicious holiday conditions for pleasure and profit, where that is desired. Those who are disposed to attend to business or employment will find many channels of advancement and progress, with promotion and preferment, or favors from those in places of authority. It is a day to be taken advantage of by the ambitious. There is a hint as to discretion in personal contacts or social relations. Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of advancement, preferment and the favor of those in high places. There is forecast of progress and prosperity in business and employment, but there is some sign of indecision or inharmonious in the personal relations.

A child born on this day may have many talents and qualifications for attaining places of position and power, with its ambitions reached by their own efforts, as well as through friends of importance. Come with us to the field, or go with our brothers to the sea and cast your nets; for the land and sea shall be bountiful to you, even as to us.—Gibran.

For Friday, July 5

While this day may be memorable for several advantages and opportunities, with encouragement for new contracts, fresh undertakings and worth-while adventures into bold enterprises, yet there is a future read as interpreting a stubborn obstacle with possible postponement or some disappointment. Under the circumstances it is advised that all effort be made with that prospect, but the delays and obstructions are not to be taken as final. Constructive work should be pushed to the highest bent, despite difficulties.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of splendid advantage and unusual openings, with much initiative toward new projects or renewals of old contracts, though the prospects for ultimate fulfillment of the ambitions may be deferred. But "all is not lost that is delayed," according to the proverb.

A child born on this day may be versatile, enterprising and should be equipped to attain success in its ventures, despite many stubborn obstacles in life.

Old Care has a mortgage on every estate, and that's what you pay for the wealth that you get.

—J. G. Saxe.

Fire Destroys Still

Dayton, O., July 3.—Dayton's independence day liquor supply was somewhat depleted today, following an explosion in the wee-small hours of early morning, which set a house on fire, and incidentally disclosed a 200-gallon still and 400 gallons of the finished product.

DR. COPELAND URGES PREVENTIVE MEASURE

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

Just a week or so ago I had you about diphtheria. But I am so pleased that the able Commissioner of Health of New York City is continuing his campaign against diphtheria I want to tell you more about it. Dr. Wynne is insisting that all children be inoculated against this terrible disease.

When I was a young doctor, I knew nothing about the prevention of diphtheria. It was extremely prevalent and very, very fatal. Little children, who had passed through the dangers of infancy and had not yet gained the strength and soundness of school age, were the ones who died.

Not only was it a fatal disease in those days, but the deaths were dreadful to witness. The poor children actually choked to death.

I can well recall the leathery, grayish membrane as it filled the throat and as it grew, ultimately shut off the breathing. As the poison of the disease was absorbed the health and figure of the child melted away, giving every evidence of the virulence of the disease.

It makes me shiver to think of what happened to childhood from the effects of this one ailment. It was the chief cause of death among children.

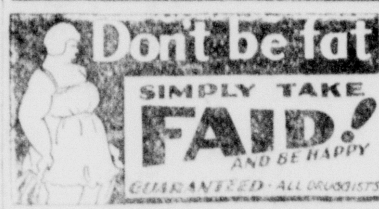

Unfortunately for mankind, we have plenty of diseases today that cannot be controlled. We face those for which there is no known cause. There are others so obscure that we have been unable to find effective remedies.

Diphtheria is not in this catalogue. It has been lifted from the unknown to one of the best understood of human ailments. There is no excuse today for any considerable number of deaths from this disease.

Sometimes lay persons sneer a little at the scientists. But no one can sneer at what they have done to guard young children against disaster. If there were no other reason for applauding their efforts, the discovery of a means of protection against diphtheria would be quite sufficient. If their methods are followed universally, diphtheria will disappear as a cause of death.

Any community can free itself of this danger. Every physician has in his possession a sure means of preventing diphtheria. Everybody dreads an operation. I don't suppose anybody ever faced a surgical knife without secret fear and perhaps visible trembling. Even so simple a thing as having a tooth extracted is a matter of concern. But as compared with these the inoculation against diphtheria is as nothing. It is neither painful nor dangerous.

I beg that every parent who has confidence in my advice may consult the family physician regarding this procedure. Your little ones are too dear to you to take any chance of a disease so dreadful as diphtheria. The trifling inconvenience of having the inoculation is of small consequence when weighed against the comforting thought that the Death Angel will pass by your house when seeking the victims of this disease.

To keep SOHIO QUALITY uniform

Hotter than Vulcan's fabled furnace are these modern Infernos of the great Sohio plants. Throw a handful of change into these furnaces and the coals melt almost instantly. Even the vivid imagination of the ancients failed to picture such withering heat as modern science now produces.

MODERN VULCANS CONSTANTLY TEND THIS ROARING INFERNO..

In the Inferno of Sohio's great furnaces a constant temperature of 1800 degrees is maintained—day in and day out. Monster oil burning blow-torches feed the fuel. Delicate meters continuously register

Only the comparative coolness of the oil itself keeps these pipes from melting. Here the oil reaches a temperature of 1000 degrees and a pressure of 1000 pounds to the square inch.

the slightest changes in temperature, and three modern Vulcans keep constant watch to sustain this heat which insures the uniform quality of Sohio. The oil from which Sohio is produced is circulated through this Inferno in steel pipes.

TRY THIS NEW GASOLINE

- 1 Put it in a car that knocks
- 2 Use it in high-compression motors
- 3 Check your mileage
- 4 Test it for power on hills
- 5 Watch your oil dilution

RED CROWN GASOLINE
The same standards of care and uniformity also control the manufacture and distribution of Red Crown. We make Red Crown ourselves, in the same great plants that produce Sohio, because our customers are educated to a better grade of fuel than ordinary motor gasolines such as we might buy in the open market.

HANDSHAKE GOES ON TABOO LIST

Hoover Abandons Old Presidential Custom Due To Hot Weather; Plan May Be Permanent

Washington, July 3.—Presidential handshaking went on the taboo list at the White House today for the balance of the summer.

Because of the hot weather, it was announced that until September at least President Hoover will abandon the custom of shaking hands with the tourists and visitors who throng the White House for just such occasions.

COUPLE IN AUTO BULLET VICTIMS

Man Is Killed; Girl Sustains Abdominal Wounds

Houston, Tex., July 3. — Guy
Gouge, 22, was shot and instantly killed early today and a girl companion, Miss Lillian Bissett, 18, was shot in the abdomen, as they sat in an automobile in the Bayshore district.

The girl, who is in a critical condition, said that someone grabbed her by the arm to pull her out of the car and when Gouge offered resistance he was shot. She said she cried, and their assailant shot her.

Officers are working on the theory that the couple were shot by a jealous lover.

RAILROAD TRUP IN NATION LOOMS

Engineers Take Strike Vote On East, West And South Roads

Chicago, July 3.—Eastern, western and southern railroads today were threatened with a labor strike following the taking of a strike vote by locomotive engineers employed by the Missouri Pacific lines and the terminal railroad association of St.
Louis. The engineers seek to compel the latter two carriers to recognize an individual grievance agreement with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

It was reported that engineers of the Santa Fe and the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific were demanding a similar contract, that negotiations have reached an impasse and that a strike vote by them was expected shortly. Other roads probably will become involved unless the controversy is settled, it was said.

The United States Board of Mediation is expected to intercede, however, before the disagreement reaches the walkout stage.

Auto Kills Man

Cambridge, Mass., July 3.—While avoiding a collision with another automobile, Frank J. Lynch, 20, today drove his automobile through an iron railing, killing his father,
Franc J. Lynch Sr.

MOVIES

July 4th Features

Only one change will be effected in the movie program of the city over the Fourth, both the Royal and Grand theatres holding over their features which started the week for showing tomorrow "Kid Gloves," the great underworld drama starring Conrad Nagel, at the Royal, and "Abie's Irish Rose," with Buddy Rogers and Nancy Carroll in scintillating characterizations remain for the holiday. The latter is at the Grand.

The lone change is effected at the State, where "The Idle Rich," being shown for the last time tonight, will be succeeded by "The Two Lovers," billed as one of the greatest pictures of the year. It will remain at the State for the final three days of the week.

"The Two Lovers"

Ronald Coleman in the "Two Lovers" is the picture being cast against the ever-stirring background of war. It tells the story of a Mark Van Ryeke, son of the patrician burmester of Ghent, and his secret adventures as "Leatherface," mysterious and faithful aid to William, Prince of Orange, who seeks to lead the enslaved country of Flanders to freedom from the oppressive hands of the Spaniards.

Together with this great vehicle will be shown, on the stage, the Renardi Trio, a group of three musicians who sing, dance and furnish music from a popular group of instruments.

"Abie's Irish Rose" is on the screen the same popular drama of love, romance and marriage, with filled complexities intermingled, that the play was on the stage. "Kid Gloves" is outstandingly one of the greatest of Nagel's crook performances and Salem holiday crowds will be able to avail themselves of a tasty dish of theater recreation at either of the three theaters over the Fourth.

Suit In Painesville Court Results
In $10,875 Verdict Favoring
21-Year-Old Plaintiff

Painesville, O., July 3.—The largest award ever handed down in a negligence case in Lake county was given Miss Leola Williams, 21, Painesville today when she was granted $10,875 by a jury in her suit against William Postman, 20, of Madison.

Miss Williams suffered a broken neck on New Year's eve when Postman's car in which she was riding overturned. She admitted on the witness stand that she and Postman had been close friends for more than a year before the accident.

The plaintiff was discharged from the hospital about six weeks ago but physicians testified she would have to wear a steel brace on her neck for the remainder of her life and would be in constant danger of death owing to the weakened condition of her spine.

Salem Tossers Clash With Dun Eden In Doubleheader Thursday

Colonial Billiards To Meet Lake Combine In Feature Duels On 4th

Both teams have announced that they will present the strongest lineups of the season, the billiards being scheduled to be represented by a still classier aggregation of Salem stars than that which trounced the lake squad last Sunday. Dr. George Early, the lake combine's ace, will also have several new faces in the roster of his combine.

Lefty Bratt, Chet Drakulich, and George Early will bear the brunt of the billiards, while Dun has not announced his slabs yet. Needles starting slabs against the Colonials Sunday, and who kept them baffled for seven innings, will probably get the call in the initial duel.

Narrow Escape

The billiards had a narrow escape from a drubbing in the teams' first meeting. Needles held them to four hits until the eighth, while Early and Bratt found difficulty in holding the Dummies safe. It was a last-minute effort for Joe Bova's men, however, as the players had all agreed to drop road contests unless they annexed the decision due to the poor success they have had on foreign fields the last three seasons.

The lake team will be somewhat weakened by the loss of Harry Vincent, star receiver, who broke a finger in the last mix, but will line up another classy catcher to succeed him, Clem Scullion and Pat Bolen. Both Salem old-timers who can still peg the leather with accuracy and hit well from the batter's box will be in the Dun Eden lineup.

Probable Lineups

Shorty Borton will be in the role of lead-off man for the billiards again and handle tosses from the

Roessler, Allen In Pitt Meets

Keith "Mutt" Roessler and Lowell "Little Rib" Allen, Salem's famous pole vaulting twins, are entered in two field meets sponsored by the city of Pittsburgh, at Pittsburgh tomorrow.

The Salem lads will compete in both, the morning meet being scheduled for 8:30, and the afternoon meet at 2:30, Salem time.

Last Saturday the noted duo participated in a ward meet in the Smokey City, Allen annexing first place, and his partner of high school days second.

BLIND HANDICAP TOURNEY JULY 4

Novelty Match Arranged For Salem Golf Club Holiday Feature

A blind handicap match has been arranged for members of the Salem Golf club as the annual July Fourth attraction. The tournament will be played during the morning and dinner will be served at the club from 12:30 until 2 p. m.

For this novelty match the contest committee will pick out of a hat a number somewhere between 70 and 80. No one will know what this number is until all competing players have turned in their scores.

Before play is started players will set their own handicaps which, in their estimation, will give them a net score of somewhere between 70 and 80. This will work as follows: Suppose the number drawn is 76 and the player sets his own handicap at 25. When he has completed the 18 holes his gross score is 101. Deducting from that handicap set by himself, his net score is 76 and he wins the prize.

Three prizes of equal value will be awarded for the day: One to the player winning the above contest; one to the player having the low net score for the 18 holes, using his club handicap; and one to the player having the low gross score for 18 holes.

Net scores will be used in qualifying for the Manufacturers' cup tournament to be played during July.

Damascus Noses Out Billiards Athletics Win For Sixth Straight Loop Win Pair To Gain On Yankees

Quakers Take Advantage Of Colonials' Misplays To Eke Out 5-4 Decision; National Sanitary Makes League Debut With 9-1 Triumph

The most thrilling last-inning rally of the season enabled the Damascus Quakers to pull through with their sixth consecutive city mushball league victory, and a 5-4 decision over the second-place Colonial Billiards, before a large crowd of wild-eyed fans at Centennial park last night.

The game was packed with thrills all through the seven frames, over-anxiousness resulting in frequent errors by both teams and accounted for the majority of runs scored during the frames. Both teams counted only three earned runs.

Pete Sartick's hard clout to left center enabled him to round the bases without difficulty in the first frame and paced the Billiards off to a 1-0 lead to start things off. Lefty Bratt followed with a triple, but died on, when Bishop fanned and Corso fouled to Grace.

Quakers Tie Score

This one run lead was good until the fifth frame, when Shorty Borton, crack Colonial short fielder, blew up, and tossed two easy put-outs into the leftfield bleachers and handed the Quakers their first marker. B. Price crossed the plate.

Harry Calladine cracked in the sixth and was found for three hits, which coupled with two misplays spotted the Billiards to a three-run lead in the sixth, and apparently sewed up the affair for the second-place aggregation.

F. Oesch started the seventh with an easy grounder to Early, who muffed it when he attempted a one-handed pickup. Gilbert smacked a drive to third, which was missed by Bishop, and Silver clogged the sacks with an infield single. B. Price grounded to Early who held the runners on their bases, but Calladine came through with a single, scoring two runners. J. Price lined one into Pete Sartick's hands in left, but Sartick dropped it. Silver and Calladine ecrring with winning and tying runs.

Maccabees Swamped

The Maccabees were handed a sound 9-1 trouncing by the National Sanitary aggregation in a preliminary contest, marking the opening of the second half of the league.

Summaries of both games follow:

ATHLETICS WIN

Pair To Gain On Yankees

New York, July 3.—Connie Mack is no doubt sorely tempted today to revive Mark Twain's classic remark concerning his premature demise. For Connie's Athletics, who were "buried" Monday following their loss of two games in a row, came back yesterday to smack the Washington Senators for a brace of games.

In doing this the elephants gained a half game on the Yankees who took only a single tilt from the Red Sox. The Yanks gained a little so far from the fact that while they were whipping the Hub City boys, the St. Louis Browns were being stopped by the Tigers, thus allowing the Huggins outfit to ease into second place.

The Athletics had an easy time of it during the first clash with the Senators but found Sam Jones something else in the second. Sad

German Must Meet Phil Scott Before Jack Sharkey Bout

New York, July 3.—Max Schmeling, the German who qualified for a heavyweight championship bout by beating Paulino last week, will not be allowed to meet Jack Sharkey in New York for the title in September, unless the Teuton first fulfills a contract calling for him to box Phil Scott of England.

The contract in question was made for Schmeling by his discarded manager, Arthur Bulow, and Tuesday the New York State Athletic commission again made known its stand in the controversy by re-affirming its recognition of Bulow as the only manager of the so-called German Dempsey.

The latter already is on record as refusing to abide by any agreements made for him by Bulow.

Fire Chief Holds Clinic Disaster Could Be Repeated

Columbus, July 3.—Considerable comment was occasioned today by a speech made by Fire Chief J. A. Welch, Columbus, at a meeting of engineers, underwriters, physicians, professors and state officials on the subject of x-ray storage, in which Welch declared that "a serious menace exists in the display of micro-cellulose articles in 5-and-10-cent stores."

The conference, called with a view to eliminating another tragedy such as the Cleveland Clinic disaster in which more than a hundred and a score of persons lost their lives, was addressed by Welch, who is head of the fire prevention bureau of the local department.

"In addition to the hazards of improper x-ray film storage in hospitals and clinics, a far greater danger exists in the sale of storage of plastics known to the trade as celluloid ivory and such articles in the 5-and-10-cent stores and 5-cent stores over the world," said the fire chief.

Every city of any size in the country and many other countries has its "five-and-ten" where girls daily sell celluloid combs and other articles, highly explosive, and of a great danger to the city and its inhabitants, declared Welch. He told of a fire in such a store where poisonous gases from celluloid articles affected the eyesight of 25 firemen.

WHAT GLORIOUS RELIEF OWA-TON-NA BRINGS

Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders Caused 15 Years of Suffering

Erma Dulabahn, 609 Fourth St., N. E. Canton, Ohio, recently told how Owa-Ton-Na corrected her kidney, liver, stomach and intestinal disorders of 15 years' standing.

"I can't remember the time when I felt as good as I do now. Once again I can enjoy eating a good meal for my appetite is wonderful and foods do not distress me and cause indigestion the way it has for so many years."

"Constipation and dizzy spells made life miserable. The pains across my back made me feel as though I was carrying a heavy load and I would hardly be up an hour in the morning before I felt tired. My kidneys were not acting right, and as I knew this was a dangerous sign, I was greatly worried about my condition. Owa-Ton-Na, right from the start showed me that I had at last found the right remedy. Almost each day I could notice improvement until now I again feel like my former self."

Let Owa-Ton-Na prove its worth to you by giving it a trial today. It is sold in Salem at Flogging's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores.—Adv.

CHRYSLER MOTORS PRODUCT

FULL SIZE

Marking the First Anniversary of a notable Success

Only a year—and Plymouth finds itself in the biggest and most modern plant of its kind in the world—a plant humming to capacity to keep abreast of an eager demand.

Only a year—and Plymouth production has exceeded the rate of 1000 cars a day.

Quality—that's the story of Plymouth success—quality that reflects itself in both appearance and performance—quality that says to the automobile buyer, "No longer does a small investment restrict you to a car of small dimensions."

Plymouth is the only low-priced car of full-size roominess and comfort,

ONE year ago, Plymouth was a brand-new name to the motor world. In the brief span of twelve months, the Plymouth, newly refined and improved, has become a commanding figure in the low-priced field.

A WARM WELCOME THAT HAS NEVER WORN OUT

"The nation-wide acclaim with which the Chrysler is heralded is due to the quick appreciation of a motor-wise public that here at last is a car which is a marked departure from all earlier practice and performance. ++ In distinctive appearance, in performance ability, in economy of operation, in fine standards of manufacturing, in roadability, in driving convenience, in supreme quality, motor car experts give the Chrysler a place apart. ++ For the Chrysler is more than a great engineering feat—it is, literally, the culmination of all past engineering experience."

—Advertisement Saturday Evening Post May 3, 1924

TRUE FIVE YEARS AGO AND STILL TRUE

Daring to go back five years when the first Chrysler appeared, Chrysler can read without apology every promise made then, for every promise has been fulfilled.

In 1924 Chrysler was new. Its claims for performance, economy and stamina had not been proved valid by the hundreds of thousands of cars and millions of miles of driving that support today's leadership.

True, the automotive industry was started by Chrysler innovations. The public trend was to Chrysler if only because Chrysler instantly out-moded other cars. Comprehensive tests had convinced Chrysler engineers that they had built a superior product. Chrysler owners before long discovered that the car upheld every promise made for it, and their eagerness to testify to its speed, its power and its strength resulted in the prevailing world-wide acceptance of Chrysler.

Now, in 1929, the public's confidence in Chrysler is still unwavering. You, too, will discover the reasons for this increasing acceptance of Chrysler leadership in quality and value if you will test the car yourself.
